OFFICE OF

the Director of Industries and Commerce
in Mysore, Bangalore,

No. D.3-77/42-43.
Encls. One.

Date 8th July 1943.

To

Charles E. Noronha, Esquire, M.A.,
Secretary to Government of Mysore,
Development Department, Bangalore.

Sir,

Subject:-War Risks Insurance - Arts and Crafts Depot, Bangalore.

I have the honour to state that sanction of Government accorded in the order No.D.4498-9/I.&C.60-4236 dated 13-1-1943 for the appointment of an extra Clerk on Rs.35/-per mensem at the Arts and Crafts Depot for the maintenance of the duplicate set of stock books and also for meeting an expenditure of Rs.100/- towards printing charges, expired by 30th June 1943.

o. 11. 28. 36
B.
The Special Officer, War Risks Insurance, Madras, who was consulted by this office if the insurance of the goods was still necessary has replied in his letter No.L.Dis.C.R.67/43 dated 1-7-1943 (copy of which is herein enclosed for kind information) that the War Risks (Goods) Insurance Act VII is still in force and the insurance of the goods is still compulsory. The Insurance Agents also sent notice of further insurance of the goods at the Depot for the quarter commencing from 1-7-1943 to 30-9-1943. The necessary proposals have therefore been sent for the insurance of the goods of the Depot under War Risks for the quarter ending 30-9-1943. As the maintenance of the duplicate set of stock books is also necessary in this behalf, the services of the extra Clerk on Rs.35/-per mensem have been continued from 1-7-1943 in anticipation of kind sanction of Government.

The cost of printing the stock books etc., estimated in the previous period at Rs.100/- and sanctioned by Government exceeded the limit. The private ~~forms~~ quoted Rs.300/- for the work with the result the order was placed with the Government Press. The bill of cost for this work has not yet been received.

The cost of printing in the current year for the above work may come upto Rs.300/-.

I request that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained and communicated for the continuance of the extra Clerk on Rs.35/-per mensem from 1-7-1943 till the duration of the War Risks Insurance (Goods) ordinance and also for incurring the printing charges of Rs.300/-necessary in this behalf. The total expenditure in this connection will be debited to the several consignor's accounts as before.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

M. R. N. Srinivasan
Director.

Copy of the letter No.L.Dis.C.R.67/43 dated 1-7-43 from the Special Officer, War Risks Insurance, Madras, to the Director of Industries and Commerce in Mysore, Bangalore.

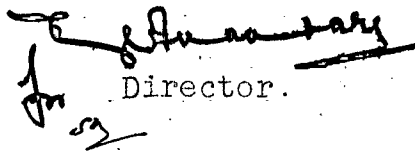

Subject:-War Risks (Goods) Insurance Act VII of 1943.

Reference:-Your letter No.D.3-77/42-43 dated 21-6-43 addressed to the Collector and District Magistrate Civil and Military Station, Bangalore.

I have the honour to state that the above Act is still in force and the insurance of goods, insurable under the Act is still compulsory.

As regards the maintenance of duplicate set of records, it is in the interest of the insured that it is necessary to maintain them.
